UNITED STATES INTELLIGENCE BOARD

MEMORANDUM FOR THE UNITED STATES INTELLIGENCE BOARD

SUBJECT: Guidance for US Delegation Regarding Revelation of Classified Intelligence Information During Technical Discussions on Safeguards Against Surprise Attack

1. The attached paper was prepared within CIA to meet a request by Mr. William Foster, head of the US delegation to the forthcoming Geneva Conference on "surprise attack". It is designed to provide general guidance for the US delegation to that conference regarding the revelation to Soviet Bloc representatives of classified intelligence information reflecting US knowledge of Soviet instruments of surprise attack.

2. The Intelligence Board will be asked to approve this paper at the Board meeting now scheduled for 4 November 1958.
